Philatelic Specialists Society of Canada to Sponsor Literature Grand Prix at CAPEX 22

Bob Vogel, President PSSC, announces that PSSC will sponsor the Literature Grand Prix at CAPEX 22, the first international philatelic exhibition held in Canada in the past 25 years. PSSC will also host a society reception and philatelic presentation at the exhibition.

In his announcement he says: “the PSSC constitution states “PSSC is a forum for knowledgeable discussion of philatelic subjects by its members who are involved in philatelic exhibiting, study, research and publishing”, and one of the Society’s objectives is “to foster philatelic research and study by appropriate means.” By sponsoring the Grand Prix award for the Literature Competition at CAPEX 22 I believe we are accomplishing both of these goals.”
